CHAMBER ANALYZES PROVINCIAL BUDGET 'NEXT DAY' NUMBERS & REACTION

Kelowna: Less than 24 hours after Finance Minister Carole James tables the province's 2020 Budget, the Kelowna Chamber will analyze the details, the impact, the changes and what it means for business in the Okanagan. Post-budget Breakfast Wednesday, Feb 19, 7:30-9:15, Prestige Beach House, 1675 Abbot Street.

The Chamber's Executive Director Dan Rogers will lead off with a look at what the Budget means from a Chamber perspective. Then, Quinton Pullen, CPA and Tax Partner at BDO Kelowna will give a detailed analysis of the areas which will have most impact on business in the area. He has experience working with clients in a wide range of industries, including tech, farming, retail, construction, hospitality and mining.

Attendees will enjoy a hot breakfast, followed by an hour of in-depth analysis and then Q&A from the audience.
